Re: United States v. Jones, et al. (Andrew Jones)
Docket No.: 13 Cr. 950

Dear Judge Griesa,

This office represents Andrew Jones, who is currently out on bail and under home confinement. Mr. Jones seeks permission to leave the house each day to go look for work and upon the securing of work that he may remain out of the house for the period of his employment and travel to and from. The nature of the work can include mobile work such as driving a delivery truck, spot job such as arc welding, and anything else approved by pretrial services. Each day that Mr. Jones is out he will give his pretrial services officer a report of where he was and be available with a non-smart phone to be in communication with his pretrial services officer if requested.

Pretrial services in both New York and Virginia have no objection. The government also has no objection.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

Respectfully submitted,

Sam Braverman
